In the Matter of :ô Reference of Industrial Dispute regarding illegally

No. 40-11 The J&K Govt. Gazette, 3rd Jan., 2019/13th Pausa, 1941. 3
Advocate appeared on behalf of respondent and filed the power of attorney.

Petitioner sought the time to file claim petition. Again file came for hearing on 29-03-2016 petitioner cause his appearance and respondent turned absent. On 26-05-2016 petitioner appeared and filed his claim petition. Respondent again remained absent. On 27-03-2018 petitioner was present and respondent remained absent. This tribunal while stating that respondent remained absent for last so many dates initiated exparte proceedings against the respondent and directed the petitioner to had evidence in exparte.

On 16-04-2019 petitioner submitted that he does not want to produce any more evidence as such evidence of petitioner was closed and file came up for arguments in exparte.

The petitioner in his claim petition stated that applicant/workman was engaged as DBBL Gun Fitter in the month of November, 2009 by respondent factory on the same terms and conditions which were applicable to other workmen working in the factory. That he was engaged as DBBL Gun Fitter on piece rate basis and minimum wages of applicant was of a skilled workmen which was Rs. 6,750/- and performed duty as DBBL Gun Fitter w. e. f. No. 2009 till December, 2012 without any interruption and to the satisfaction of employer. That he performed all duties assigned to him by the dint of his hard work and no act of commission or omission has ever been reported against him. That he was duly registered under ESI Act and his provident fund account was also maintained by the respondent.

Petitioner examined Prabhu Dhayal Sharma and himself as witnesses 'in the shape of affidavits.

Petitioner in his affidavit stated that applicant was engaged as DBBL Gun Fitter in the month of November, 2009 in M/s. Friends Gun Works on the same terms and conditions of other co-workman and was engaged on piece rate basis and minimum wages of Rs. 6,750/- P. M. and performed his duties as Gun Fitter w. e. f. November, 2009 till December, 2012 without any break/interruption and his name was duly registered under ESI Act and also his provident fund is also maintained by the respondent but in the month of December, 2012 his services was terminated without any show cause notice or reason. That deponent was not paid any retrenchment compensation or other dues which are to be paid to the deponent in terms of Industrial Dispute Act and when deponent requested to respondent to give him his

4 The J&K Govt. Gazette, 3rd Jan., 2019/13th Pausa, 1941. [No. 40-1 dues including other compensation, the respondent told him that he has already closed the ESI of the deponent and will not pay any due to him as he has become overage but the deponent was only 57 years of the age at that time.
That deponent is entitled to all the benefits including retrenchment compensation under Industrial Dispute Act along with penal interest. That the averment made in affidavit are true and correct.

P. W. Prabhu Dhayal Sharma deposed in his statement on affidavit that he is working as DBBL in Gun Fitter in M/s. Friends Gun Works Industrial Estate Ashok Nagar Satwari, Jammu since 2008 and in 2009 one Rajinder Sah S/o Dhanik Sah R/o Rani Talab, Digiana, Jammu was also engaged by proprietor of M/s. Friends Gun Work and used to get wages of Rs. 6,750/- PM on piece rate basis. That in the month of December, 2012, the services of Rajinder Sah was terminated on the ground that he is over age but was not overage and was of 57 years of age as such he is entitled for retrenchment compensation and other benefits under Industrial Dispute Act. That the averments made in affidavit are true and correct to the best of this knowledge.

I have heard the arguments of the petitioner in exparte and have gone through record carefully. The petitioner also submitted the written arguments on 16-05-2019.

The petitioner at the outset stated that he was engaged as DBBL Gun Fitter in the month of November, 2009 by respondent Factory on the same terms and conditions which were applicable to other workman in factory and was engaged as DBBL Gun Fitter on piece rate basis and the minimum wages of the petitioner was of the skilled workmen was Rs. 6,750/-. The applicant performed his duties as DBBL Gun Fitter w. e. f. November, 2009 till December, 2012 without any interruption and to the satisfaction of respondent and have performed his duties also by the dint of his hard work and no commission or omission has ever been reported against him. He further submitted that he was duly registered under ESI Act and his Provident Fund was also maintained by respondent. Also placed on record the copy of identity card issued by ESI Act enclosed as exhibit Rs. 1. Again, the petitioner submitted that in the month of December, 2012, the respondent without any reason or rhyme and without any show cause notice retrenched the services of the petitioner without affording any opportunity of being heard and without following the mandate of Industrial Disputes Act. As such the termination

6 The J&K Govt. Gazette, 3rd Jan., 2019/13th Pausa, 1941. [No. 40-1 of industrial Disputes Act were paid on the ground that he has been become over age where as he was only 54 years old.

PW Prabhu Dhayal Sharma the witness of petitioner also corroborated the statement of petitioner. As the petitioner produced his evidence in exparte so their statements remained unrebutted and there is nothing on record to disbelieve them.

Section 25 F of Industrial Disputes Act provides makes it clear that requirement prescribed by it is a condition precedent for the retrenchment of the workman and non-compliance of the said condition renders the impugned retrenchment invalid and inoperative.

Rule 76 of Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 framed in 1957 is reproduced as under for appreciation :

76. Notice of retrenchment. If any employer desires to retrench any workman employed in his industrial establishment who has been in continuous service for not less than one year under him (hereinafter referred to as 'workman' in this rule and in rules 77 and 78), he shall give notice of such retrenchment as in Form-P to the Central Government, the Regional Labour Commissioner (Central) and Assistant Labour Commissioner (Central) and the Employment Exchange concerned and such notice shall be served on that Government, the Regional Labour Commissioner (Central), The Assistant Labour Commissioner (Central), and the Employment Exchange concerned by registered post in the following manner :

- (a) Where notice is given to the workman, notice of retrenchment shall be sent within three days from the date on which notice is given to the workman.

In Raj Kumar V/s Director Education 2016 LLR 561 (SC) it has been held by Hon^{ble} Supreme Court that it is clear that in the instant case mandatory conditions of section 25F of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 to retrench a workman have not been complied with. Hence the order of retrenchment is liable to be set aside and accordingly set aside.

In the instant case petitioner who worked as DBBL Gun Fitter with respondent from November, 2009 till December, 2012 without any interruption, registered under ESI and his Provident Fund account was also maintained by respondent and in the month of December, 2012 respondent

terminated him without any show cause notice without affording any opportunity of being heard and with following the provisions of Industrial Dispute Act. It appears that such termination is bad and petition of the petitioner has merits.

From the perusal of identity card issued by ESI the date of birth of the petitioner has been shown as 01.05.1955 who had not crossed the age of retirement in 2012 when his service was terminated. But now the petitioner has crossed the age of retirement as such cannot be reinstated.

Since the petitioner last salary was 6750 which would be basis for calculation.

Accordingly the termination of petitioner is set aside and the respondent is directed to back wages till the date of retirement and other benefits available to petitioner.

Accordingly an award is passed in favour of the petitioner and against the respondent Management. Copy of the award be sent to the Government of J&K through its Commissioner/Secretary, Labour Department for information and publication in the Govt. Gazette. File shall be consigned to record after its due completion.
